

Economic Development Corporation of Sullivan County

Investment and Deposit Policy

Introduction

Sullivan County Economic Development Corporation (“EDC”) hereby adopts the following policy and procedures as it pertains to investment and deposit of EDC funds.

Scope

This investment and deposit policy applies to all EDC moneys and other financial resources available for investment on its own behalf or on behalf of any other entity when acting as agent for that other entity.

Objectives

The objectives of EDC’s Investment and Deposit Policy and Procedures are four fold:

- To conform with all applicable federal, state and other legal requirements;
- To adequately safeguard the principal amount of funds invested or deposited;
- To provide sufficient liquidity of invested funds in order to meet obligations as they become due; and
- To obtain a rate of return commensurate with market conditions.

Authorization

The authority to deposit and invest funds is delegated to the Treasurer of EDC.

The Treasurer of EDC may establish written procedures which shall provide adequate internal controls to ensure a satisfactory level of accountability regarding the management of EDC funds.

Ethical Activity

All participants in the investment and deposit process shall seek to act responsibly as custodians of the public trust and shall avoid any transaction that places EDC funds at unreasonable risk.

All participants involved in the investment and depository process shall refrain from personal business activity that could conflict with proper execution of the deposit and investment program.

Diversifications

It is the policy of EDC to diversify its deposits and investments by financial institutions, by investment instrument, and by maturity scheduling.

Safekeeping and Collateralization

Eligible securities used for collateralizing deposits shall be held by a third party bank, trust company or trust department of the bank subject to security and collateral agreements at the discretion of the EDC.

The security and custodial agreements shall provide that securities held by the bank or trust company or agent of and custodian for, the EDC, will be kept separate and apart from the general assets of the custodial bank or trust company.

The security and collateral agreement shall provide that eligible securities are being pledged to secure EDC deposits and investments together with agreed upon interest, if any, and any costs or expenses arising out of the collection of such deposits upon default.

Permitted Investments

As authorized by General Municipal Law, Section 11, EDC authorizes the Treasurer of EDC to invest moneys not required for immediate expenditure for terms not to exceed its projected cash flow needs in the following types of investments:

- Obligations of the United States of America;
- Obligations guaranteed by the United States of America where payment of principal and interest are guaranteed by the United States of America;
- Obligations of the State of New York;
- Special time deposit accounts;
- Certificates of Deposit;
- Obligations of public authorities, public housing authorities, when renewal agencies and industrial development agencies where the general State statutes governing such entities or whose specific enabling legislation authorizes such investments;
- Obligations issued pursuant to Local Finance Law Section 24.00 or 25.00 (with approval of State Comptroller) by any municipality, school district or district corporation other than County of Sullivan; and
- Eligible Investments, as defined in the Indenture between EDC and Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, as Trustee as amended from time to time.
